

CIA Director Pompeo Oversees Capture Of UN Pedophile Who Leaked Video Of Hillary Clinton Killing Child

By Sorcha Faal

An absolutely stunning new Foreign Intelligence Service (SVR) report circulating in the Kremlin today reveals that during the past fortnight, CIA Director Mike Pompeo was personally dispatched by President Donald Trump to the Federal Democratic Republic of Nepal to hold a secret meeting with the Supreme Leader of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea (DPRK) Kim Jong-un—but with Pompeo's dual-mission to this Asian nation, also, seeing him personally oversee the capture of top United Nations adviser Peter John Dalglish—who, in desperation just prior to his being apprehended, released to the “dark web” what is described as a “snuff film” showing Hillary Clinton and her top aid Huma Abedin torturing and murdering a child.

According to this report, this past Sunday (15 April), the SVR contacted their CIA counterparts to provide them with satellite tracking and signals intelligence information showing that both CIA Director Pompeo and North Korean leader Kim Jung-un had traveled to Nepal during this past fortnight—to which the Americans responded to by stating that as Nepal had longstanding good relations with the United States, and, equally, longstanding good relations with North Korea too, its international neutrality provided the most obvious choice of meeting places for the upcoming summit between President Trump and Kim Jung-un—and that both the US and North Korea were making a “trial run” in preparation for.

When SVR officials asked their CIA counterparts as to why Director Pompeo was personally overseeing an operation being conducted by the Central Investigation Bureau of Nepal Police (CIB) to capture the international fugitive Peter John Dalglish, while at the same time he was meeting with the North Korean leader, however, this report continues, the Americans abruptly ended their “conversation” with SVR officials—but, within 3 hours, then saw SVR Director Sergey Naryshkin receive a personal call from Director Pompeo—and wherein Pompeo told Naryshkin that President Trump had ordered an immediate halt to any further sanctions of Russia in exchange for allowing the Americans to handle this “extremely delicate issue” on their own—that Moscow agreed to—and was then followed by the US admitting that Pompeo had, indeed, met with Kim Jung-un—but whose place of meeting was said to be North Korea, not Nepal where it had actually occurred.

As to the “extreme delicate issue” being dealt with by President Trump and Director Pompeo, this report details, was the capture of one of the most secretive wanted fugitives in the world named Peter John Dalglish—who is described as a Canadian humanitarian, top United Nations advisor, and founder of the Street Kids International charity organization—which, within a few weeks of President Trump’s stunning election victory over Hillary Clinton, suddenly revoked its Canadian charitable registration on 15 December 2016—with Dalglish then appearing in Nepal three days later on 18 December 2016.

With SVR intelligence “assets” maintaining continuous “observations” of Peter John Dalglish since his late December-2016 arrival in Nepal, this report notes, no actions against him by the Americans had been observed, other than the CIA constantly monitoring him too—but that changed a few weeks ago, in late March, when a CIA advance team arrived in Nepal for purposes, at that time, unknown.

Upon the CIA advance team arriving in Nepal, this report says, SVR intelligence analysts recorded a “significant increase” in “dark web” communications emanating from the home of Peter John Dalglish—that culminated, during the first week of April, when he released to the “dark web” a video file code named “Frazzledrip”—that contains a scene of Hillary Clinton and her top aide Huma Abedin taking the facial skin off a young girl child and wearing it over their own faces to terrify the girl—with Clinton and Abedin then killing the child and drinking her blood. [WARNING: This link does not contain the actual “Frazzledrip” video file—but whose instructions to access SHOULD NOT be followed as it is against US Federal law to do so.]

Shockingly, too, this report continues, another “dark web” video posted by Peter John Dalglish shows Hillary Clinton and Huma Abedin engaging in sex acts with an underage girl child—with reports coming from the US saying that this video was so horrifying, it made seasoned New York City police officers cry—but that these police officials, also, say is the “Rosetta Stone” of information connecting senior American politicians, such as Clinton, to an elite global pedophile ring.

To why Peter John Dalglish had posted these inhuman demonic videos of Hillary Clinton to the “dark web”, this report concludes, was in an effort to blackmail the “Deep State” in order stop his being captured by CIA forces loyal to President Trump —but whose efforts did not succeed as elite Nepal police forces, while being overseen by Director Pompeo, successfully captured him, while at the same time rescuing the two girl children he had imprisoned in his home—and with the first “ripple effect” of this capture being the “Deep State” pawn US Senate Leader Mitch McConnell stunningly just reversing himself and giving Trump the “green light” to fire Special Counsel Robert Muller—and that, no doubt, will soon turn into a “tsunami” engulfing, and ultimately destroying, the “Deep State” forever—and whose evidence of this being true can be seen in the rabid and psychotic fear now being displayed on an hourly basis by the “Deep State” aligned US mainstream propaganda media establishment whose attacks on Trump have become so unhinged, they now border on the insane.
