

The Pentagon's New Map, The Fall Of The Saudis & The Major Re-Alignment Of The Middle East

By Matthias Chang – FutureFast-Forward

Future Fast-Forward's webmaster has just posted an article by renowned geopolitical analyst Jim Willie on the fall of the Saudi Royal family and the re-alignment of the Saudis to the East – towards China and Russia in the event of the demise of the Petro-dollar. I am in agreement with Jim Willie's conclusion on the inevitable demise of the Saudi royal family but I disagree with his analysis that the Saudi's realignment with China and Russia will enable the Saudis to survive the demise of the Petro-dollar.

To appreciate my reasons for disagreeing with Jim Willie, please examine closely the map of the countries in the Middle East as is presently constituted in MAP 1 below:

Redrawing the Middle East map

Now examined the Pentagon's MAP 2 below for the future Middle East with the countries in MAP 1 and how the boundaries have been planned and redrawn in MAP 2 to show a "new Middle East" that will unfold in the near future. Start shitting bricks!

Pentagon's New Map for the Middle East

You need to focus only on Saudi Arabia to know that the demise of the Kingdom was planned a long, long time ago. But the Saudi Wahhabists and their adherents especially in Malaysia are still living in cloud cuckoo land, believing that they will continue to receive US$ Billions in “Islamic aid” to perpetuate the hideous, sinister and distorted version of Islam contrary to what was revealed to the Prophet (PBUH).

Yet again, this grand scheme of things will see the repeat of the time-tested modus operandi of inciting Muslims to kill Muslims, designed and fine-tuned by the Zionist Anglo-American war party in the last 100 years.

But, the brainwashed Muslims remain clueless, notwithstanding that I had in vol. 1 of the Future Fast-Forward Trilogy published in 2005 warned of this catastrophe and has repeated the warnings in hundreds of articles posted to my website, this article being my final warning.

The arrogance displayed by the Zionist Anglo-American war party is not new. Have they not said repeatedly that if they had the power to draw the boundaries of the countries of the Middle East unilaterally in 1916, they can always redraw the boundaries should circumstances demand such drastic actions?

Space and time do not allow me to explain in detail how the boundaries were drawn in 1916. Muslim readers should just Google “Sykes Picot Agreement” and all related historical documents to have a better understanding of the current issues and stop their stupid rant that what I am writing is bullshit. I have no wish to convince anyone who insists on burying their heads in the sand!

Google again “General Wesley Clark on the destruction of seven countries in the Middle East” and watch the YouTube video. Discover for yourselves how General Clarke was told, to his horror, the planned destruction of seven Muslim countries in the Middle East in 2007.

Watch it now!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Google once again! How Saudi Arabia was created by the British out of the destruction of the Ottoman Empire! It was the British who created and founded the puppet regime that was conferred the title: “Custodian of Mecca and Medina”. How the hell did the country get the name of “Saudi Arabia”? Find it out yourself and be disgusted that you, the Sunni Muslims were brainwashed by the British colonialists to believe that the filthy despicable Saudis were the “historical descendants” of the Prophet, entitled to have absolute control of Mecca and Medina and that their version of Islam (Wahhabism) is the definitive Islamic teaching to be followed and adhered!

This was the biggest religious con ever invented by the Zionist Anglo-American war party, using oil money to corrupt and distort the Quran and brainwashed the Muslims!

Why is Saudi Arabia now headed for oblivion?

Why indeed! The answer is simple! They have served their geopolitical purpose. The Saudis’ shelf life has expired. And they will be destroyed by wars of their own making. Provoked and incited by the Zionist Jews and rogue intelligence elements of the US Deep State that they could destroy Iran and Syria and have undisputed lordship and control over the entire Middle East, the Saudis stupidly went on a war rampage in Syria and Yemen. Even after their horrendous defeat in Syria and stuck in Yemen quagmire, the Saudis still believe that with the connivance and collaboration of Israel, they can rule supreme.

What a freaking joke!

Why do you think the Arab Muslims are despised and cursed behind their backs by the Zionist Jews?

You know the answer better than I do.

Even after reading this article and even in the unlikely event that this article gets widespread following in the entire Middle East, it will not change THE OUTCOME decided by the Zionist Anglo-American war party. Period!

This is a given!
