

Whisper's Exhortation – A Traumatic Awakening

Shared by Matthias Chang

This is Whisper's Fifth (5th) meditative insight that I received early morning today and it was augmented by my deeper thinking during my perambulation at home and in my office.

Yesterday I was tired, drained of all my energy following Whisper's directive ... to research and dig deep and discover what was revealed by HER messages and now corroborated by my eager research and mind mapping.

I felt so betrayed, misdirected to take a long detour, misled for years by the "teachers", "gurus" "Champions" etc. of the other Faiths ..... Then I realised that there is nothing to be angry about. It was part of my journey to know and to have faith in Whisper's messages which SHE received from HIM!

I seek your indulgence. Don't be arrogant and study the message and be the judge for yourself.

Whisper exhorted:

"Matthias, since you were a child, studying in the Prep School in England, the years of education, the tiresome searching and discovery in your journey, did anyone from All Faiths mentioned once to you? ....

The Heart is the essence of all knowledge because ....

The Bhagavad Gita states so in Chapter 18: 61

The Bible states so .... Book of Samuel 6: 7

The Quran asserts ..... Surah 36 Ya Sin, is the Heart of the Quran

The Taoist, Lao Tsu states: If there is to be peace in the home, There must be peace in the heart.

The Buddha Taught the "Heart Sutra" ... The Heart of the Perfection of Wisdom.

(In Sanskrit, the title Prajñāpāramitāhṛdaya translates as "The Heart of the Perfection of Wisdom")

"The take away is that all the Sources of Absolute Truth, the Holy Scriptures are grounded on this essential lesson. Yet, not once have the so-called "Champions", the "Experts" and the "Defenders" of their Faiths shared with you this Absolute Truth because they are so ignorant and arrogant but, pretend to be knowledgeable and arrogate to themselves a position of misperceived power and authority. They are all charlatans and scammers. Banish them from your sight!"

“Matthias, we trust that you will finally understand why we commanded that you “share” but not “persuade” anyone to believe the messages and insights conveyed to you. It is for your protection. We were not sure of your obedience and adherence ... You were so flawed and being trained as a Barrister, the temptation of your stature may just divert the course of your faith.”

“It was indeed a blessing that you did not at any time, arrogate that you are:

A Master
A Teacher
A Guru
An Expert
A Healer

“But, a mere lowly messenger, to share and not to persuade and you made no claims that you were “special’. And the saving grace was your realisation and the open admission that you were flawed, thereby smashing the evil of the EGO and you counted your blessings and beg us to grant you the indulgence of receiving the morning messages and insights.” (emphasis as directed)

“Matthias, you are so tired, but have FAITH AND GAIN BACK THE SPIRITUAL STRENGTH.”

Sitting down to write this message to all of you is not an easy task ... the question, “Why Bother at all?” keeps rearing its ugly head, but I was reminded by Whisper ..... SHARE!

Food for Thought

Fill me this day, I pray,
With the strength of your Spirit,
The strength to be flexible and ever-green.
Create within me the heart
Of a disciple of life
