

Whisper's Touch - The Ultimate Spiritual Language

Shared by Matthias Chang

“Matthias, in more ways than one, the ‘spoken word(s)’ has caused more pain and hurt, disillusion, separations, disunity and the loss of faith in humanity than any other act or omission.”

“There is no need for any arguments. Just examine your daily existence and how the ‘Spoken Word(s)’ have caused you so much pain and how you appealed to HIM to help you not to surrender to your ego, emotions, to banish the anger and moved on ... to seek the safety of the ‘Refuge / Abode of Silence’ and the ‘Comfort of Soundlessness’. It was always a struggle, not to react or respond to the painful spoken word(s). Being so flawed, you too have spoken painful word(s) and others have found it a struggle not to react.”

“Matthias, how did I ‘speak’ to you??? My Whispers were never ‘spoken’ (though referred to as ‘whispers’), yet my messages have stirred your inner being, your soul.”

“My Heart TOUCHED your Heart and the heart-beat, like waves, caressed your Heart in a constant rhythm as waves do. Think of all the positive words or expressions associated with the word, TOUCH ... and yet we never in any of our communications use this magical language of TOUCH.”

“Matthias, humanity and you have lost this ‘magical’ language which is an essential facet of consciousness.”

“For nine months in the Mother’s womb and the early years before a baby learns to speak, the ‘spoken language’, the Consciousness and the Purity of that Love was exchanged by the TOUCH and rhythm of the Mother’s and Baby’s Hearts. Nothing else. This is HIS ‘magical’ the Touch of Consciousness.” If truth be told, there is no magic. The ‘Touch of Consciousness’ is HIS language.”

“Matthias, lest you forget, there was never a need for ‘interpretation’ (and the inevitable misinterpretation, if there were spoken words). The Mother and Child just KNEW, what needs to be known by THEIR TOUCH.”

“No distance or time can ever separate the ‘Magical Touch’ of the Heart.”

“Is this not your experience in your life for over four decades?”

“I have always ‘touched’ you and you in turn have ‘touched’ our Hearts and our willingness to share with you because you implored us to forgive your flaws.”

“It is unfortunate that you have to put in writing our language of ‘Touch’ and shared with those you hold dear and near. For now, there is no other way as their HEARTS have not been awakened by HIS touch, and their acceptance with gratefulness the power of the language of Touch.”

“But, we are patient and we have the faith that you will persists in sharing this wisdom and disseminate the language of Touch! However, we must caution you as you must strive hard, for it is counter-intuitive for men to speak by ‘touch’ and this challenge is compounded by the growing disuse of ‘touch’ by women in the Western part of your world, as women are brainwashed to strive to be equal (=) to men, when man can never be equal (=) to woman. It was a special gift by HIM to Mothers, to master the ‘Language of Touch’ with each baby in her womb.”

“Go, Matthias, touch more Hearts and revive the consciousness in humanity that has lost this Gift.”
