

Whisper's Directive – Post Your Meditative Insights To The Global Audience, via The FF Website

By Matthias Chang – Future Fast-Forward.com

Prologue

To my global audience which is receiving this “Meditative Insight” for the first time, let me explain some basics for sharing the messages that I received from “Whisper”.

Whisper is the name of the Communicator of the messages which are imparted to me when I meditate, after my wake-up at 3 am every morning without exceptions, followed by my Perambulation Practice, once in my house and again when I am in my private office (in my Law Chambers), before I start my day as an Attorney / Barrister.

In sharing the messages, I am commanded to “only share” and “not to persuade” anyone to believe in the messages, which time has proven, that the majority do not believe them at all and considered my messages as gibberish or nonsense. I never felt frustrated or angry because my duty was merely to share and not to persuade.

I am what I am because of the messages imparted to me for decades by Whisper. And I count my blessings and offer my appreciation and gratitude.

Hundreds of thousands of people have paid hefty sums to “Guru”, “God-Man”, “Holy-Man” and “Spiritual Guide” etc. to learn and acquire the demanding practice of meditation, only to drop out completely and thereafter complained that “meditation is so difficult and it was a waste of time and effort – what a scam!” And the “fees” demanded are usually in US Dollars but still the people discard the practice.

The irony is that these people often brag that they are the “devotees” and or the “disciples” of the above-named “Teachers” riding on the coat-tails of their Masters’ reputation! Meditation Practice has become a huge global industry raking in multi-million dollar revenues.

Yet, there is a cliché that states that “a person does not appreciate the value of any lessons even given for free”. So, why pay and still discard what has been imparted? Unless you have been conned!

With discipline and dedication, the priceless Gift of meditation and receiving insights and messages from “Whisper” is absolutely free.

This Morning Meditative Insight

Whisper came as usual at the appointed time and said,

“Matthias, in spite of our warnings and commands, you sought our indulgences to continue sharing the messages and insights. We gave thought to your persistence and we have decided that it would be better for your practice, if you share our messages to the global audience that you may ultimately arrive at the inevitable conclusions in due course.”

“Before proceeding further, you are reminded to adhere to the commandment that the messages and insights are from HIM and never to claim that the messages are from your mind. We take note that you never breached this commandment, otherwise we would have ceased all communications.”

“Those who discard our messages are ignorant fools for by doing so, they have blasphemed HIM.”

“Your saving grace has been your self-imposed rejection and not to be enslaved by the labels given to so-called intellectuals:

- 1) BSc = Bloody Screw-ups;
- 2) MBA = Master Bullshit Artiste;
- 3) PhD = Phony Donkey
- 4) Thinking Out of the Box... ”

“You have often communicated to your friends, the reality, “why would anyone need to think out of the box, unless they are trapped in the box... So don’t get into a box !”

“Arrogance and the typical mind-set of so many have led them to continuously ask, WHY? And having asked why, continue indulging in the linear fixed mind-set, still inside the box (to borrow the expression), unable to arrive at the objective truth.”

“Instead of asking why and holding on to a single perception, we are imparting to you the skills to look beyond the five sensory perceptions, to open your Third Eye and “see” the other reality, the realm of spirituality where your consciousness opens the door to new dimensions of HIS reality. Whatever understanding that you have acquired is flawed because you have not “tuned” in to HIS reality.”

“This disclosure will also enable the disciplined mind (your mind) to navigate effectively, avoiding the pitfalls and the darkness that clouds your mind ... to think multi-dimensionally. When scientists have postulated and conceded that there are between 200 Billion to 2 Trillion galaxies in the Universe, how can people continue to think in one dimension?”

“Matthias, you spend at least two hours a day meditating and thinking the average Joe hardly spend a minute to “think”, jumping and rushing from one issue, agenda, meeting etc. to another, like the cat on the hot tin roof! Continue your practice and count on your blessings.”

This has been a difficult morning, but I am not giving up. This is a wake-up call for me to persist and exercise my “conscious mind” and to focus, focus, focus on Whisper’s teachings – to think multi-dimensionally and be more disciplined.
