

Why Malaysia Must Be Subverted By Western Powers To Control The Straits Of Malacca Before The War Against China

By Matthias Chang – Future Fast-Forward

1) Historical Prologue

Many of you reading the title of this article will react with horror and that such an eventuality can never happen, as Malaysia is relatively peaceful. History tells us that the then Malaya and the Straits of Malacca were essential (and still is) in the establishment of any hegemony in Asia in general and specifically the “cordon solitaire” - the containment and encirclement of China and ultimately Russia from the East.

Lesson 1

Wikipedia provides a useful historical summary for the purposes of this article.

*The Greater East Asia Co-Prosperity Sphere (Japanese: 大東亞共榮圈, Hepburn: Dai Tōa Kyōeiken), also known as the GEACPS, was a pan-Asian union that the Japanese Empire tried to establish. Initially, it covered Japan (including annexed Korea), Manchukuo, and China, but as the Pacific War progressed, it also included territories in Southeast Asia. The term was first coined by Minister for Foreign Affairs Hachirō Arita on June 29, 1940.

The proposed objectives of this union were to ensure economic self-sufficiency and cooperation among the member states ... In reality, militarists and nationalists saw it as an effective propaganda tool to enforce Japanese hegemony. The latter approach was reflected in a document released by Japan's Ministry of Health and Welfare, An Investigation of Global Policy with the Yamato Race as Nucleus (1), which promoted racial supremacist theories. Japanese spokesmen openly described the Great East Asia Co-Prosperity Sphere as a device for the "development of the Japanese race."

Lesson 2

Why do you think the British colonised the then Malaya and left Indonesia to the Dutch? Is it because Penang and Singapore control the entrance and exit and vice-versa of this critical shipping route?

There is no need to go back to ancient history. It will suffice to remember that under the Dutch colonial project, the entire area as called “The Dutch East Indies” and the sphere of influence was maintained and sustained by the “East India Company.” The colonization of Indonesia, which was clearly motivated by Dutch economic interests in the Spice trade, was portrayed as a “civilizing mission.” This was supported by the ideology that Indonesians were primitive and backwards and that the Dutch could civilize and modernize them.

Use your grey cells and ask, why did the British adopt the Dutch template to the extent of even having a “British East India Company?”

It was the continuation of the monopolistic colonial hegemony founded on the supremacy of “race”, which is the heritage of the Talmudist doctrine!

Bull Shit? Think again and read the quotation below:

*Churchill rejected the idea that Palestinian Arabs had good reason to complain about the rapid Jewish immigration into Palestine, and “allowed himself to be drawn into a more contentious discussion. ‘I do not admit that the dog in the manger has the final right to the manger,’ he told the commissioners ‘even though he may have lain there for a very long time. I do not admit that right. I do not admit, for instance, that a great wrong has been done to the Red Indians of America, or the black people of Australia. I do not admit that a wrong has been done to those people by the fact that a stronger race, a higher grade race, or at any rate, a more worldly-wise race, to put it that way, has come in and taken their place.’

Gilbert relates Churchill’s advocacy for replacing Arabs with Jews as the majority in Palestine at the Peel Commission in 1936.

Professor Reginald Coupland “complained that the Jewish Agency ... had its representatives in London ‘and they can speak to the Colonial Office and the Arabs feel on their side they are rather left in the cold. They have not the great engine the Jews have.’ Churchill replied brusquely, not hiding his preference: ‘It is a question of which civilisation you prefer.’ (2)

Lesson 3

Why do you think the British established Malaysia? Look at the map of East Malaysia and you will appreciate that the control of this sea route (Malacca Straits) has been extended further into the South China Sea.

In modern times, “Settler Imperial Power / Hegemony” is implemented indirectly through proxies, compradors and the obedient and subservient political machinery.

More importantly because the entire Intelligence Apparatus of the colonialisied and neo-colonialisied countries) were established and trained by the Hegemony’s Intel Apparatus, continuation of control is assured!

Europe's entire Intel Apparatus is controlled by the Zionist Anglo-American Intel Network. Ditto for Australia, Japan and the ASEAN region!

Examine the map of the encirclement of China and the location of the military bases and Intel Networks and how they all work in tandem. They follow the dictates of their Zionist Anglo-American masters! Period!

Lesson 3 - Present Regional Configuration

The strategic location of the new capital of Indonesia "Nusantara" in Indonesia's Kalimantan is in anticipation of Western hegemonic wars in the region, specifically US's pivot to Asia, first announced by President Obama. All other reasons are sheer propaganda and public relations.

ASEAN Briefing provides this summary:

Indonesia's new capital, which was first announced in 2019, is estimated to cost over US$35 billion to construct. The government has also just announced the name 'Nusantara' meaning archipelago – to be the new capital's name. It is meant to underline Indonesia's official national motto of Bhinneka Tunggal Ika (Unity in Diversity). The push for the new capital by President Joko Widodo came shortly after he won his second five-year term in office in 2019. Widodo stated that the relocation of the new capital was to address economic inequality in Indonesia and to relieve the burden on Jakarta and the island of Java where it is located.

From a strategic perspective (5 to 10 years or earlier), when the shit hits the ceiling fan and the entire Straits of Malacca is up for grabs, Indonesia in East Kalimantan (a gigantic landmass) can still survive, even after "forfeiting" Java and Aceh.

The False Flag Tsunami in Aceh has sent shivers down the spine of every Indonesian patriot, coupled with the memory of a US aircraft carrier anchored off Jakarta, when IMF's Michel Camdessus with folded arms, demanded from President Suharto, unconditional surrender to US /IMF commands!

Forbes publicised the ouster of President Suharto as follows. It's a long read, so be patient and digested every word quoted. (3)

Read the words in RED and UNDERLINED

On August 14, 1997, shortly after the Thai baht collapsed on July 2nd, Indonesia floated the rupiah. This prompted Stanley Fischer, then the Deputy Managing Director of the International Monetary Fund and presently Vice Chairman of the U.S. Federal Reserve, to proclaim that “the management of the IMF welcomes the timely decision of the Indonesian authorities. The floating of the rupiah, in combination with Indonesia’s strong fundamentals, supported by prudent fiscal and monetary policies, will allow its economy to continue its impressive economic performance of the last several years.”

Contrary to the IMF’s expectations, the rupiah did not float on a sea of tranquility. It plunged from a value of 2,700 rupiahs per U.S. dollar to lows of nearly 16,000 rupiahs per U.S. dollar in 1998. Indonesia was caught up in the maelstrom of the Asian Financial Crisis.

By late January 1998, President Suharto realized that the IMF medicine was not working and sought a second opinion. In February, I was invited to offer that opinion and was appointed as Suharto’s Special Counselor. Although I did not have any opinions on the Suharto government, I did have definite ones on the matter at hand. After nightly discussions at the President’s private residence, I proposed an antidote: an orthodox currency board in which the rupiah would be fully convertible into and backed by the U.S. dollar at a fixed exchange rate. On the day that news hit the street, the rupiah soared by 28% against the U.S. dollar on both the spot and one year forward markets. These developments infuriated the U.S. government and the IMF.....

Ruthless attacks on the currency board idea and the Special Counselor ensued. Suharto was told in no uncertain terms - by both the President of the United States, Bill Clinton, and the Managing Director of the IMF, Michel Camdessus - that he would have to drop the currency board idea or forego $43 billion in foreign assistance.

When Mrs. Hanke and I were in residence at the Shangri-La Hotel in Jakarta, the Clinton administration's objection to the currency board was "not that it wouldn't work, but that it would, and if it worked, they would be stuck with Suharto."

Much the same argument was articulated by Australia's former Prime Minister Paul Keating: "The United States Treasury quite deliberately used the economic collapse as a means of bringing about the ouster of Suharto." Former U.S. Secretary of State Lawrence Eagleburger weighed in with a similar diagnosis: "We were fairly clever in that we supported the IMF as it overthrew (Suharto). Whether that was a wise way to proceed is another question. I'm not saying Mr. Suharto should have stayed, but I kind of wish he had left on terms other than because the IMF pushed him out." Even Michel Camdessus could not find fault with these assessments. On the occasion of his retirement, he proudly proclaimed: "We created the conditions that obliged President Suharto to leave his job."

This can never happen in Indonesia again. No way!

Did I not say that political leaders are selected, not elected? Another glaring example!

Yet, you screwed up Malaysians cannot be bothered and say that I am writing BS. Piss off numbskulls!

2) Fast Forward

Only idiots and the blinkered would challenge what I am about to write in the paragraphs below. This is my warning to all Malaysians. Time for spoon feeding is over!

Think and shiver in your pants!

- The Zionist Anglo-American Powers have made known at least a decade ago that it must destroy Russia.
- Obama announced the "Pivot to Asia" policy in 2011.

Previously, under the administrations of Bill Clinton and George W. Bush, naval and air weapons systems were deployed to Guam and Japan, and cooperation began with Singapore by constructing an aircraft carrier facility at Changi Naval Base. (4)

The Bush administration assigned an additional aircraft carrier to the Pacific theatre and the Pentagon announced in 2005 that it would deploy 60 per cent of U.S. submarines to Asia.

The Zionist Anglo-American agendas were planned years ago when Malaysians were sleeping and oblivious. Malaysians are still being spoon fed and behaving like arseholes!

Special Attention

- Israel was established and funded by US /Britain as the “Landed Aircraft Carrier” to control the Arab monarchies and Muslims in the Middle East. Period!
- Singapore is the “Island Aircraft Carrier” to control the ASEAN region following the humiliating defeat of France and subsequently US in the Vietnam wars.

The war against Russia started officially in 2014, after the MAIDAN coup in Ukraine initiated by the political bitch Victoria Nuland. She even chose the President and Prime Minister of Ukraine! Another example of leaders being selected, not elected!

Now, the war criminals are provoking and baiting for a war in Taiwan, notwithstanding that the entire world (including UN) have upheld that there is only “One China” and Taiwan is a province of China – the One China Policy.

Consider:

- What would Malaysians do if and when another country (US / UK etc) armed Johore, encourages the secession of the State from Malaysia and stationed troops there as a pretext to fight “terrorists”?
- Like Israel in its current genocidal war against the Palestinians, what if Singapore is openly supported militarily and financially by the US/UK to cause mischief in our country?

3) Bloody Financial Nightmare Over The Weekend

- The Zionist Anglo-American war criminals are ready to use the $300 Billion of Russian’s Foreign Reserves to implement its agenda. The criminals did it first to Iran. I know for a fact because I was the political secretary to the then Prime Minister.
- This is the SOP for a coup and to blackmail the political establishment to toe the line.
- Therefore, no country’s monies (Foreign Reserve) are safe and leaders must be subservient to their agendas. This is the arrogance of hegemonic geopolitical power.
- $300 Billion is small when compared to China’s foreign reserves which is in the $Trillions.
- Russia sold all its US Treasury Reserves in 2021 in preparation for a war with US and NATO but could not prevent the theft of its foreign reserves.

4) Food for Thought (from Bernana)

- KUALA LUMPUR, April 30 -- Malaysia's official reserve assets amounted to US$113.76 billion (US$1=RM4. 76) as of end-March, 2024, while other foreign currency assets stood at US$1.61 billion, according to Bank Negara Malaysia (BNM).
- Malaysia has gold reserves, increasing 6.84 per cent to 38.88 tonnes from 36.39 tonnes, according to City Index using data from the World Gold Council.
- Singapore's gold reserves had recently increased by 30 per cent in January 2023, City Index said Singapore had the third-largest increase in gold reserves in the last decade, increasing by 20.68 per cent from 127.4 to 153.74 tonnes.
- Although Malaysia was considered to be the most similar country to Singapore by several metrics, Malaysia's gold reserves had increased by just 6.84 per cent in the same period, a difference of 13.84 percentage points.
- Thailand has had the second-largest increase in gold reserves in the last decade, increasing by 60.20 per cent from 152.41 to 244.16 tonnes.

Draw your own Conclusions. Don't depend on me!

Give me a break! If Malaysians are still sleeping and being spoon fed, and more importantly are disunited and fractured, we are finished! Kaput!

NOW TELL ME WHETHER SLEEPY AND BLINKERED MALAYSIANS ARE READY WHEN THE SHIT HITS THE CEILING FAN?
