

Know History And Spring Clean Our Brainwashed Minds

By Matthias Chang – Future Fast-Forward

Some time ago, I wrote on the need to study geography to understand geopolitics and shared my experiences with you.

In this article, I am sharing my experiences on the study and application of History, on current issues, to reset my brainwashed mind to accept another reality which has been so distorted by the books, etc. since the time when I learned how to read when in Prep school in London. I was an insatiable reader.

Historical contents are so critical in one's education. We have an incredible brain, but we treat it as a photocopy machine to load-up so much BS. What we “get out”, is the result of what we “uncritically shaft into our heads”! It is extremely difficult to unload the information overload of trash, but unload we must.

Why?

We were influenced by the British education system in Malaysia and UK in every which way - in blunt terms, a victim's brainwashed outlook of the British version of reality. We must therefore with discipline and dedication, relearn almost everything we have been taught and the ground zero for this calamity is to appreciate that there is another perspective, viewpoint and more importantly, another reality.

Where do we begin? Since we are currently confronted with the prospect of WWIII, war would be an excellent starting point in our journey to another reality.

On War

I was much influenced by the British history of WWII, and my bias outlook was buttressed by Winston Churchill's six volume set on WWII as evidenced by the picture below of the said books on my conference table taken from my library at home.

Therefore, it was incumbent on me to appreciate contrarian views and study from historians who were re-examining British victors' justice and truths and offering to open-minded people, the opportunity to explore another reality and truths hidden and guarded by the praetorian army of lies – as Churchill is often quoted as saying,

"In wartime, truth is so precious that she should always be attended by a bodyguard of lies."

So, what truths were needed to be attended by a bodyguard of lies?

I was fortunate that my late friend, Michael Collins Piper showed the way. He had an astounding library but, for the purposes of this article, I need only refer to three historians, two Americans - Harry Elmer Barnes (a trained historian), and Donn de Grand Pre and David Irving who was the British historian until he was maligned by the British establishment, for telling the truth and shredding the guardians of lies to pieces!

Let me explain.

Donn was praised by Pedro A. Del Valle (1893-1978) a Lieutenant General in the United States Marine Corps, who commanded the 1st Marine Division in the Pacific Theater of Operations during World War II and after the war, became Inspector General for the Marine Corps, for writing the trilogy, "Barbarians Inside the Gates",

"Know your enemy is a must for every American worthy of the name and is especially recommended to those men who hold high offices and are in position, before it is too late to save the Republic from its traducers. If the Founding Fathers were alive today they would be the first to approve this book and to point with pride at an author with the courage and patriotism to risk everything, as they risked everything, for this our beloved country."

I have the autographed copy of the Three Volume Trilogy!

In regard to David's books etc. on Winston Churchill, specifically "Churchill's War – The Struggle for Power" the following praises were heaped on David,

"Irving's research enables him to correct Churchill's official biographer [Martin Gilbert] over significant details"

Observer

A mixed picture of a flawed, great man (Churchill) ... a sleazy compelling story of corruption, hypocrisy and sexual immorality"

Evening Standard

"As always, Irving's research has been impressively wide-ranging"

Independent

"Impeccably research from original manuscripts, diaries and archives, renowned British historian David Irving exposes the many myths surrounding the former English Prime Minister, revealing tarnished details, both personal and political, that hitherto have been concealed, disbelieved or ignored by his predecessors ... Irving's book is lively and a mine of new information"

Literary Review

I will now quote two outstanding American historians on Harry Elmer Barnes who wrote, "In Quest of Truth and Justice".

Prof. William L. Langer of Harvard wrote, (1) [see End Notes]

"The author has long since taken his place among the leading writers on the question and has waged a courageous fight against odds in this country ... He had reduced many of his opponents ad absurdum and the process is highly illuminating and instructive. As a record of a great debate and as evidence that the truth will out this part of the book should be of interest to those who have followed the subject and desire a general picture of recent developments. But of intrinsic value is the earlier part in which the author surveys briefly the present status of the question, elucidating various disputed points by statements made to him by the leading statesmen of 1014"

Prof. William L. Neumann wrote,

"The revisionists were not carrying on their crusade merely to corner the historical record. Most of them believe that mankind's version of the past had to be wise and discerning one to be a valid guide for the future. Suggestive generations have had to deal with new but similar historical problems in seeking right paths for a peaceful future."

"WWII, Pearl Harbour, the Cold War, the Koran War and the Vietnam War all demand the best analysis if civilisation is not to end up in the biggest of conflicts, the exchange of thermonuclear weapons. There are many lies which can be traced from these latter conflicts back to WWI. The effort of these early revisionists to thrash out the most valid truths within men's capacities on the origins of the first mass murder of the twentieth century remains as important an intellectual task as when this volume was first appeared."

You will notice that this specific technique of writing has a deliberate purpose - to introduce the relevant books and my mentors which you would otherwise ignore for want of time. The quotations and the underlined passages contain so much information in themselves, and I hope that you will read and examine each and every word with a fine tooth-comb.

Food for Thought

Bullet points for you to query:

- Why did Winston Churchill declared that "War is a game to be played with a smiling face"?
- Are not the present leaders of the Empire in US, UK, NATO and Europe behaving as Churchill demanded?
- What was the significance of the debate between Stalin and Churchill on democracy – that Britain was really a dictatorship because one party – the party in power controlled everything
- Did you know that Churchill bombing policy in WWII led to the slaying of a million civilians in Holland, France, Belgium, Czechoslovakia, Germany and Scandinavia?
- So, who is copying this policy in Gaza presently?
- In Vol. 3, on the Second World War, Churchill wrote, "We were conscious of a serious danger that the United States might pursue the war against Japan in the Pacific and leave us to fight Germany and Italy in Europe, Africa, and in the Middle East.” So, who is enticing the US to continue fighting Russia when President Obama announced that in the future, US must pivot to the Asia and not Europe as China is the main threat?

- In Vol. 6, Churchill wrote, “The moral principles of modern civilisation seem to prescribe that the leaders of a nation defeated in war shall be put to death by the victors. This will certainly stir them to fight to the bitter end in any future wars. And no matter how many lives are needlessly sacrificed, it cost them no more. It is the masses of the people who have so little to say about the starting or ending of wars who pay the additional cost.”
- Why do you think US, UK, NATO and Europe insists that Ukraine must fight to the last Ukrainian standing?

I have shown the parallels in the above “Bullet Points” and have demonstrated that we are seeing a repeat of some of the policies propounded by Churchill. And President Biden, PM Sunak, illegitimate Zelenskyy and the NATO / European leaders know that any defeat would result in their deaths for the proxy war and the funding and arming of Ukraine.

The bait is the US$ Trillions in Ukrainian assets and wealth that can be exploited in a victory. A huge miscalculated gamble by the Zionist Anglo-American Empire and now they are facing defeat!

The penalty of death is what drives them to fight to the bitter end!

Now, you will understand why History is so critical in geopolitics as well as I domestic politics!

End Notes

- 1) William Leonard Langer (1896-1977) was an American historian, intelligence analyst and policy advisor. He served as chairman of the history department at Harvard University. He was on leave during World War II as head of the Research and Analysis Branch of the Office of Strategic Services.
