

Whisper's 29th Meditative Insights To The World

Shared by Matthias Chang

LISTEN, LISTEN & LISTEN!!!

Whatever I am disclosing is so counter intuitive and why so many give up on meditation is because people DON'T LISTEN.

I am so exhausted lately, I cannot even concentrate anymore and I am so, so tired and horrified by what I am listening

Whisper's words caressed my soul and as tears welled in my eyes, I realised that there are so much that I did not share with you, on the wrong assumption that I was not supposed to share. I therefore seek your indulgence.

Whisper lovingly and anxiously said,

“Matthias, you have correctly and repeatedly said that the HEART is the critical path to enlightenment and that we must SEE with the Heart. You made a mistake by not sharing that when SEEING with the Heart, the people must also LISTEN with the Heart.....”

“You are so burdened and desperate, because you were listening and WHAT YOU HEARD scared the daylights out of you. This is one of the missing keys to unlock the mysteries of learning HIS absolute Truth.”

“After each meditation, you spent so much time researching and reading on things hidden from you and being very sensitive, you were moved to tears from what you saw but more importantly, by what you heard.”

“Not many have the blessing of the ‘Gift of Listening’ to the words”

“Tell them the secret of SEEING beyond words, and do it as soon as possible and without holding back anything.”

“Tell them that when reading the horrors of EVIL, they must listen carefully for when they listened carefully, the reality that is unfolding will tear their Being and Humanity apart into a thousand pieces and only the strong and faithful to HIM will overcome the burden.”

“Let me illustrate. Write it down and share this specific message”

“Whenever, we read and see the horrors of slaughter (genocides), wanton killings, senseless crimes and the cries of despair.... LISTEN with your heart, especially the cries of desperation, for help and prayers. Listen!”

- Did you not hear the cries of death, suffering and pain when you read the words that children were slaughtered?

- Did you not hear the cries of pain and humiliations, when mothers, sisters, daughters, the innocents were raped, molested and tortured because they were helpless and the criminals did so knowing they will never be prosecuted?
- Did you not hear the cries, the begging that the crimes must stop and justice must prevail?

“Only the heartless, the damned, the evildoers, the selfish, the callous, the insensitive readers REFUSE AND DID NOT LISTEN when reading the news, the messages, the headlines, the pleas, the prayers of the Innocents!”

“Now, I hope your people will understand that when reading, not only must they SEE the words before them but they must also LISTEN to the SOUNDS of the words.”

“How can anyone see and read the word CRY and not be able to listen and hear the CRIES?”

“How can anyone see and read the words STOP, I BEG YOU and not be able to listen to the BEGGING SCREAMS, to stop the madness, the humiliation?”

“How can anyone see and read the words WHY, WHY, don't you have a mother, a sister, a daughter ... and not be able to hear the DESPERATE WHYS?”

I am trembling with the pain and anguish ... listening to the cries, the pleas and the desperate prayers for cessation and peace.

I cannot GIVE UP, NOT NOW, NOT EVER!

Please LISTEN and do something **!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
