

Geopolitical Quandaries, Pyrrhic Victories and The End Of All Empires.

The Betrayals and hypocrisy of all the Big powers!

By Matthias Chang – Future Fast-Forward

If and when you have studied history and geography, what I am exposing is just common sense, a no brainer and when you conscientiously refuse to indulge in intellectual masturbation ... (Google the meaning of the underlined words, if you are sincere)

The Geopolitical Players

- The Western hegemonic powers led by the Zionist Anglo-American war party;
- Zionist Israel;
- Russia;
- China;
- Iran; and
- The Wild Cards - the Most Heroic of all liberation fighters in history – the Palestinians supported by Hezbollah!

The Consequential War Theatres

- Continental USA;
- Europe;
- Russia / Ukraine;
- China / Taiwan;
- Middle-East / Israel / Iran; and
- Palestine.

The Perceived Geopolitical Prize

Total and unchallenged global hegemony!

The End Game / Outcomes

No more Empires, ever!

The Consolation Prize – Fractured Regional Powers.

Ultimate Loser (s)

Zionist Israel!

Others to be determined after 2025 and before 2030

The War Dance

For the present moment, the geopolitical players have agreed to wage war under certain rules of engagement (the crossing of stipulated “Red Lines” are prohibited), unless the defeat would be an existential threat to the survival of the geopolitical player / nation, then all options will be on the table, including nuclear wars.

What we have witnessed in the last two years were “Limited Proxy Wars” in two initial areas of engagement – Ukraine and Palestine, with two potential areas of enlargement – Lebanon and Taiwan.

There were several breaches of the agreed rules and even extreme provocations, but all the geopolitical players agreed (no matter how unpalatable) to limit the scope of the agreed “limited wars”.

Why???

The majority of the dead and wounded were the Palestinians. For the war criminals, they are mere collateral damage!

Hamas was not a party to the agreed rules of engagement. Neither was Hezbollah!

The side issue for all sides across the geopolitical divide was how they can control and manage the “Wild Cards” who dare wage war and puncture the myths of the might of the Zionist Anglo-American Empire and Israeli criminal thugs. The dastardly connivance by the Intelligence Services of all the geopolitical players / nations was to decapitate the leaders of the “Wild Cards”.

The decapitation included General Qasem Soleimani – the Commander of the IRGC (Qud Force). He was described as "the single most powerful operative in the Middle East" and a "genius of asymmetric warfare." Former Mossad director Yossi Cohen said Soleimani's strategies had "personally tightened a noose around Israel's neck."

The pain suffered by the geopolitical players / nations was such that, it was still bearable and the collateral damage posed no threats to the immense power wielded by all the geopolitical parties / nations. The people of the geopolitical players / nations) did not oppose the “limited proxy war” in the manner displayed during the Vietnam War.

The exception was Palestine, the “Wild Cards”!

Yes, there was a planned genocide against the Palestinians, but it was not inflicted on the people of the geopolitical players / nation.

The people of the geopolitical players / nations were not entirely on a war footing. There have been no food rationing, no total mobilization for war by any country. Zilch!

It has been a bloody limited war and devastation on the cheap!

Eye Witness Report:

I hate to write and state this injunction – you must read and tattooed in your mind the below narrative, otherwise you cannot be considered a genuine Peace Activist that opposes wars.

Don't be hypocrites!

It will suffice for the purposes of this article to state that it was a singular honour and privilege for me to be invited by leaders and fighters of Palestine to visit Gaza and to speak to the brave people.

Did I have the spirit and courage of foreign activists who gave up their lives, before and after the barbaric and brutal murder of Rachel Corrie, an American Christian, murdered and bulldozed by an Israeli armored bulldozer?

I prayed for guidance and the courage of my convictions never to betray the blood of the Palestinians shed in the fight for liberation.

I was asked repeatedly whether I had a prepared speech from the then Prime Minister Dr. Mahathir Mohamad and or greetings from other dignitaries. I replied no, and I saw the disappointment in their faces.

Their faces brightened up and tears flowed when I said,

'I am not a hypocrite and would never write or speak about the heroism of the Palestinians from the comfort and safety in Malaysia. The words and or sympathies expressed are useless and worse, hypocrisies, if I did so!'

"I want to be a witness to the barbarity and cruelty inflicted on the Innocents. I must see and feel the pain and the horrors inflicted and I will expose the genocidal barbarity of the Israeli thugs and their Western masters. Until total victory, I will always identify with the heroic Palestinians."

I was embraced and undeservedly accepted as one of them when I was shown and felt the searing pain of the horrors inflicted as I went throughout Gaza as a witness. I never had any doubts that I would fulfill my role.

One night, I was privileged and honored to be invited to meet up with the Prime Minister, Ismail Haniyeh in a secured hideout. I felt so inadequate in front of such a giant of courage and principles. I was embraced and warmly welcomed. This much I did say and advised in his presence – 'emulate the Vietnam liberation fighters, dig tunnels deep, forge an army of snipers, the lethal force in urban warfare, because there are no jungles or covers in Gaza. An entire battalion of tanks and soldiers will grind to a complete halt and even retreat by a single shot or more, from unseen and unknown fighters hundreds of yards away.'

I then spoke to a large gathering of Palestinians and the proceedings were 'televised live' throughout the Middle-East. The Prime Minister, the Health Minister and other leaders were there. I was humbled by their presence and the kindness extended to me. I promised to the esteemed leaders, that I will speak the absolute truth as a witness, before I was invited to the stage to deliver my speech. I was overwhelmed by the pain and emotions and choked with tears not knowing whether I could express their pain and sufferings

My reservations were misplaced as the response was beyond expectations, and I knew, in my blood and bones, that I was accepted and became a Palestinian! They knew I spoke from my heart and soul, not one word was contrived and or imagined from the comfort of my home or office in Malaysia. "I came, I saw and gave my all" united until total victory. And as tears flowed down my cheeks, I can say without reservations and or hesitations that, that was the proudest hour / day of my life! I was given a scarf which I wore proudly, as the identification that I am a fighter within their ranks.

I therefore cringed with disgust and embarrassment when Malaysians wear the Palestinian scarf for their ego trips and self-glorification when they have not set foot on the blood stained soil of Palestine.

Subsequently, in my other visits to Palestine, I had named the first ship from Malaysia that carried humanitarian aid to Gaza, "Rachel Corrie" and named another freighter "the Spirit of Rachel Corrie" in memory that her spirit and courage will continue to motivate us to do more!

The War Dance – Part II

No one will state this – the leadership of Hamas and Hezbollah and the General / Leader of the Quds Force, were murdered by the dastardly betrayal by the Intelligence Services of the Geopolitical Players / Nations because the martyrs were obstacles to the planned geopolitical agendas hatched for decades.

A huge strategic mistake!

There will be a heavy price to be paid by traitors and the heroic names of the murdered leaders will forever be remembered as martyrs for liberation and freedom.

I had referenced this issue in my previous article and cited in full the last Tweeter message from Hassan Nasrallah. The martyrs fought and made huge sacrifices and demanded peace but, the devious powers wanted wars to continue, for their unrealized geopolitical interests.

Revisiting The War Theatres

The War Theatres

Continental USA
Europe
Russia / Ukraine
China / Taiwan
Middle-East / Israel / Iran
Palestine

- The Zionist Anglo-American Empire has always wanted to invade and conquer the then Soviet Union and now Russia. The Cold War (WWIII) failed to achieve the objectives as were the previous world wars (WWI and WWII). Ukraine was the spring-board to achieve that goal. The neo-cons called the present war – WWIV.
- Russia must at all costs neutralize Ukraine for survival.
- Israel has always planned for Israel's borders to be "from the river to the sea". There was a huge proviso – after the defeat of Russia and China – as the Zionist Anglo-American Military Industrial Complex can only be more effective once Russia and China are subjugated. The myth of Israeli military might must be sustained.
- The "Wild Cards" of Hamas and Hezbollah disrupted all the plans hatched for decades. Russia and China bought into the myths of Israel's military might. The geopolitical apple-cart was overturned.
- Russia and China was in a quandary to protect their Middle East area of control and to focus on the on-going wars or engaged in a war in the Middle East. Russia (FM Lavrov's statement) has openly declared that it would protect Israel's security Interests. China's Bridge and Road Initiative envisages a stable Middle East.
- Israel planned and strategized that Russia (being a protector of her security interest) would not be involved in any military conflict in the region.
- Israel assumed incorrectly that the combined military might of the US and Israel would be more than enough to subdue the neighborhood of Sunni Muslim traitors, all beholden to USA, UK and NATO.
- The Wild Cards changed drastically the equations and prior calculations. There is no defeat of Hamas in Gaza and Hezbollah cannot be controlled in spite of US$ enticements in the hundreds of billions.
- Russia miscalculated that Israel can handle Palestine from the River to the Sea. Ditto China!
- There is no country in the world that can militarily conduct any wars simultaneously in Ukraine, Palestine and Taiwan – Not USA, UK, NATO, Russia, China or gangster Israel. Zilch!

THIS IS THE QUANDRY

Any victory, if one can call it that, in the current geographical and geopolitical circumstances, would be a pyrrhic victory.

Conclusions

Had the three “Wild Cards” - Ismail Haniyeh, Hassan Nasrallah and General Qasem Soleimani - not decapitated and murdered / assassinated, the advantage would have been abundantly clear for the camp of the Resistance, the SCO and BRICS equations.

To avoid any misinterpretations, there would not have been any quandary and all the geopolitical players / nations would have accepted a new status quo, with three hegemonic spheres of influence.

Now, the world must witness a total bloody war. And in the next war (s), we would be fighting with sticks if and when we survived.

Caution:

Do not jump from the frying pan into the fire!
