

Prime Minister Tun Dr. Mahathir Mohamad, Betrayed By Ignorant Rogue Elements Within UMNO. Read President Trump's 1776 Commission Report To Understand Why! By Matthias Chang – Future Fast-Forward

Focus On The Dates

The Independence of the United States (the Declaration of Independence) was read in Congress on the 4th July 1776.

I quote:

"We, therefore, the Representatives of the united States of America, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be Free and Independent States; that they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honour."

Why the vehemence?

I quote again:

"... when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new Guards for their future security - Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States."

Malaya gained Independence in 1957 and I submit that WE DID SO, on similar and valid grounds but not so eloquently stated as in the Declaration of Independence.

Our country is comparatively, very young even when we compare our historical trajectory with the United States of America. We must therefore be humble and not assert that we have some ill-conceived and self-arrogated "superiority".

In fact and I would suggest that we learn from the President Trump when he asserted with pride that "we are all immigrants!" In our National Language, the word for immigrants is “pendatang.” It was the immigrants from all over the world that built the United States of America.

Ditto for our country, Malaysia!

Why “Assimilation” Failed, Even As We Are “Malaysians”

For over 22 years, YAB Tun Dr. Mahathir Mohamad tried as hard as he could in his efforts to unite the country, failed to “assimilate” the various communities into one national collective.

It must have been very painful and frustrating and finally to suffer the insult that he did not assimilate enough to be considered “Malay” but, a “Kutty” (a derogative slang for an individual of Indian descent) by those accusers who are immigrants.

The Malay Mail published that Tun Dr. Mahathir Mohamad testified in court that he has been a Malay and Muslim since birth, refuting claims that he is of Indian descent as alleged. I empathise, that the leader and the president of UMNO (United Malay National Organisation / Pertubuhan Kebangsaan Melayu Bersatu) for over 22 years had to suffer such pain and insult.

Therefore, consider carefully: Why should other communities “assimilate” when no other Malay leader that has done so much for the Malay / Bumiputera community as YAB Tun Dr. Mahathir Mohamad, and yet has been insulted as a “Kutty”?

How Malaysians Forget The Irrefutable Truth

What is this irrefutable truth?

I quote again from the US Declaration of Independence:

“We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness -That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, -That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness.”

The citizens of the United States of America are “AMERICANS” but the Democratic Party in its blind and arrogant pursuit of power categorised Americans as:

- The Black;
- The White;
- The Afro-Americans;
- The Latinos;

- The Asians;
- The Christians;
- The Muslims;
- The Jews; and
- The mixed race.

Sounds familiar??

And we have a “Ministry for Unity” and we still cannot unite, barking on the wrong tree with racism, sectarianism, religious fanaticism and whatever “isms” that favour the politicians, out to get votes to be elected and or re-elected.

We Malaysians are the personification of the characters in the legendary book, “1984” by George Orwell.

Here is a summary of the book from the Internet:

“It tells the story of Winston Smith, a citizen of the miserable society of Oceania, who is trying to rebel against the Party and its omnipresent symbol, Big Brother. Winston works for the Ministry of Truth altering the history of Oceania to fit the government's current narrative.”

Substitute the “Ministry of Unity” for the “Ministry of Truth” and Malaysians will appreciate how f#@ked up we are, even as we claim to be “independent” from “Mother England, the land of the Free”... !

Learning From The 1776 Report

I have belaboured at Malaysians to learn from history, but to no avail. We are too lazy and so arrogant that we know better when we know nothing.

With humility, the Commissioners of the Report invited the Americans to,

*“The principles of the American founding can be learned by studying the abundant documents contained in the record. Read fully and carefully, they show how the American people have ever pursued freedom and justice, which are the political conditions for living well. To learn this history is to become a better person, a better citizen, and a better partner in the American experiment of self-government.”

The rationale to learn from history is so clear and apparent. I quote again,

*“Other nations may have birthdays. For instance, what would eventually evolve into the French Republic was born in 1789 when Parisians stormed a hated prison and launched the downfall of the French monarchy and its aristocratic regime. The Peoples Republic of China was born in 1949 when Mao Tse Tung’s Chinese Communist Party defeated the Nationalists in the Chinese Civil War. But France and China as nations—as peoples and cultures inhabiting specific territories— stretch back centuries and even millennia, over the course of many governments.

“There was no United States of America before July 4th, 1776. There was not yet, formally speaking, an American people. There were, instead, living in the thirteen

*British colonies in North America some two-and-a-half million subjects of a distant king. Those subjects became a people by declaring themselves such and then by winning the independence they had asserted as their right. They made that assertion on the basis of principle, not blood or kinship or what we today might call 'ethnicity.' Yet this fact must be properly understood.

Read the bloody words highlighted in RED and BOLD! President Trump and the Commissioners referred to France and China.

Malaysian arseholes should take note and not self-indulge till they get blisters, by ignoring this fundamental truth!

Level-headed American leaders do not labelled the Commissioners of the 1776 Report as communists, terrorists etc. by such references. Yet, the F#@King Brain-dead propagandists in the Malaysian national security apparatus would labour or suspect anyone making a similar references as “commies”, “subversives,” “extremists” and or “Chinese stooges”!!!

F.... you! F.... you !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

In many ways we are like the people of the United States. I quote:

“... the newly formed American people were not quite as homogenous—in ancestry, language, or religion—as this statement would seem to assert. They were neither wholly English nor wholly Protestant nor wholly Christian. Some other basis would have to be found and asserted to bind the new people together and to which they would remain attached if they were to remain a people. That basis was the assertion of universal and eternal principles of justice and political legitimacy.”

Conclusion

Quoting the great American leader, Martin Luther King,

“When the architects of our republic wrote the magnificent words of the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence, they were signing a promissory note to which every American was to fall heir. This note was a promise that all men, yes, black men as well as white men, would be guaranteed the unalienable rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.”

Dare we, Malaysians to unite on the basis of the clarion call issued by Martin Luther King, Jr and reject the fascist politicians’ calls to unite on the basis of race, sectarianism and distortions of the Words of God Almighty?

I rest my case.
