

Revisiting & Addendum To Article – “What Is the Price?”

NO TIME TO BE F#@KED UP

Time is of the Essence!

Trump has been elected and declared the “President –Elect” and will take the Oath of Office in January, 2025.

President Putin is already wielding power, wisely.

President Xi is also firmly entrenched as President and leading with foresight.

SO, TRUMP SHOULD SHUT THE F#@k UP AND MOVE AS IF THERE IS NO TOMORROW.

There is a need to learn from history as the three presidents of the three pivotal countries (the Big Three) cannot arrogate that they know best. They don't freaking know best and or everything.

Presidents come and go, but History and Wisdom remain constantly relevant to be harvested by the diligent and wise “political farmers”.

A King from India gave up a Kingdom to be enlightened. He is revered as the Buddha.

Jesus was born in a manger and was a carpenter and inspired billions of followers. He and the Father is One!

The Prophet Mohammad (PBUH) distilled the wisdom and lineage of the words of God / Allah and passed on the inheritance to his followers.

SO, THE FREAKING BIG THREE PRESIDENTS CANNOT, BY ANY MEASURE BE EQUAL TO THE SPIRITUAL BIG THREE.

Be humble and stop behaving as if you own the world. All three of you are on borrowed time and you are given an opportunity to make a difference before you turn to dust! This is a given. Period!

Therefore, take my message seriously.

A Story

I had a “4 eyes” lunch with the ambassador of a great country, China in a small and simple restaurant. He sought for my (the proverbial code -“High Priest”) views and advice on a potential visit of the then Vice-President of his country and what would be the reaction of our then Prime Minister / Leader (the proverbial code "Pharaoh").

High Priest replied,

"Listen and convey the message. Don't argue and miracles will happen. Stuff the idiotic protocols, the ego trips and BS. Your VP will need "quality time" before he becomes the leader and President. He will have an intimate and private dinner with the Pharaoh at his residence. No formal banquet, dinner or parades / guard of honour. Waste for time. Only insecure leaders need such protocols to boost egos. Time is of the essence. Shake the mountain and move as if there is no tomorrow."

The ambassador said haltingly, "How can I move without the confirmation from the Prime Minister, your leader. I cannot report to the powers that be without a written confirmation. It is too risky and I could lose my job!"

High Priest replied, "It is confirmed, start moving or I will not help you at all. Just do it."

"But you have not even seen your Prime Minister!" the ambassador retorted, shaking nervously at my assertiveness.

"My Prime Minister is different and Malaysia is not a communist country." I dismissed the objections summarily.

TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE

I telephoned ahead to my secretary to cancel all appointments as I am going to skip all protocols to meet the Pharaoh. What transpired is beyond your pay grade or your curiosity!

All was confirmed by the Pharaoh on the High Priest's assurances that we are planning for the future.

I phone the ambassador and before I could speak, he said that High Priest's country ambassador in Beijing was totally blur and knew nothing at all.

I stated bluntly, on this issue, "the Ambassador is irrelevant. He need not know for now".

The ambassador said with fear, that he even checked with the Foreign Office and they knew nothing! What an idiot!

The High Priest went ballistic, short of a volcano eruption and gave a final warning, "Move your arse, and if you act accordingly you will surely be promoted. Don't even question the High Priest's judgment as this is for our countries' future."

As they say, the rest is history.

I hoped that Pharaoh will recollect what transpired. Other bureaucrats may claim the credit, but they did fuck all.

PRESIDENT XI SHOULD CALL UP THE RECORDS AND VERIFY WHAT HAS BEEN NARRATED HERE.

There was a private and intimate dinner hosted by the Pharaoh at his residence. Two tables – a Main Table for ten (and another for the High Priest and the aides of the VIP visitor) if my recollection serves me right.

News of this unprecedented honour extended to a future leader went viral in the diplomatic channels.

What followed?

The then President of France was accorded the same honour and intimacy.

The President of Turkey (Erdogan) had a different dinner setting (also small but intimate).

And others!

The British was so fucked up. They did not realise the significance.

I must mention that our “Pharaoh” must be given the credit for agreeing to the historic and the unprecedented outcomes. Arsehole Malaysians can only criticise and gossip but, they did fuck all!

Time is of the Essence and our leader (the Pharaoh) seized the hour and the day!

This is how History is made!

Yet, we have arseholes, after only short stint in government, wielding what they erroneously perceived as “power”, were merely talking the talk, not walking the talk and making history! Sad!

I cry for my country.

YAB Tun Mahathir Mohamad never claimed that he was without flaws and long may he continue sharing his wisdom!
