

President Trump Must Cross The Rubicon. Russia and China Are Not Your Enemies. Resolve Together, The Challenges At The Table of Power

By Matthias Chang – Future Fast-Forward

“Let the dice be cast” as there can be no turning back.
It is better to have friends than enemies at the Table of Power

Be Counter-Intuitive

If and when the false Catholics / Christians – the Bidens and his leftovers, the Pelosis and her scumbags - sabotage the Presidential inauguration, bring them down with the iron fist, with no mercy!

OMG, has Matthias Chang gone mad in advocating violence and such drastic measures?

I am writing in plain language so that there cannot be any misunderstanding or misinterpretation. This is the reality of geopolitics and domestic politics, not hypocrisy!

Trump has declared “Make America Great Again”. Is this a mere election slogan or a genuine political objective?

Make the wrong decision, and Trump will be the worse president in US history. Russia and China will walk away from the Table of Power and global war will ensure. The biggest loser will be the USA.

USA must no longer be a “poodle” for Britain. It must not be held to ransom that the US needs the Brits to be at the Table of Power to get RESPECT from the world.

This has always been the strategic mistake of the US since 1776! Ignore Kissinger, the opportunist!

A Historical Decision

President Trump made a historic and unprecedented decision when he was willing to sacrifice a business empire to be the President of the US in 2015. It is none of our freaking business, being a foreigner to be concerned about US politics.

But, it is idiotic for any foreigner not to be anxious when a country such as USA is heading towards a self-inflicted doom because the “political class” as personified by the Clintons, the Obamas and the Bidens, are so corrupt and have blatantly weaponized the Constitution, the Law and turned the country into a personal fiefdoms to perpetuate their “political dynasty”. These scumbags are a danger not only to the USA but to the world!

Just as well, the 2020 presidential election was rigged and corruptly hijacked by the abovementioned political dynasties as otherwise, the world would not have learned about the EVIL of the political dynasties and President Trump would not have succeeded in convincing Americans that their country is rotting from within because of the treason of the traitors inside the gates, and achieved a landslide victory over the insidious political bitch, Kamala Harris.

It took a businessman turned “politician” to take on the most heinous, corrupt and vicious political dynasties to score a “tactical victory” as the strategic war and victory has yet to be fought.

Three women will ensure A STRATEGIC VICTORY – the incoming Attorney General, Pam Bondi, hopefully Tulsi Gabbard as the Director of National Intelligence and Trump’s White House Chief of Staff, Susie Wiles.

THREE

The political Praetorian Guards - the Director of the CIA, John Ratcliffe, the Head of FBI, Kash Patel and the Secretary of Defence, Pete Hegseth will be doing the bloody fighting in the trenches. They are not playing a secondary role - The best defence is strategic offence. The two teams need each other.

THREE

Without the two teams, each with three warriors, the strategic victory cannot be achieved. There is sheer panic within the ranks of the abovementioned criminal political dynasties.

Therefore, Trump must make everything possible (even tactical moves) to have the two teams confirmed by the Senate. The RINOs in the Senate must be whipped into compliance and be told in no uncertain terms, “obey or else go to jail”. There is enough evidence against them for ten years imprisonment at the minimum. No-Holds- Barred! Mitch McConnell is an opportunist, a rattle snake and his RINOs must be controlled!

Foreign Policy Reflects the Success of Domestic Policy

President Trump got it so right when he laid the foundation of his domestic policy – “Make America Great Again”!

Since when in history does a weak domestic policy (and country) give rise to a strong foreign policy (and a respected country)?

This is so elementary in leading a country and be respected as a leader, even if the leader is from a small country (but, not a weak country).

Small does not necessarily mean weak. Stupid! Big does not necessarily mean strong! Canada is a big country but has weak leaders, “poodles”!

Think & Implement Strategically

It is imperative that the Heads of the Four Political Families at the Table of Power think and discuss strategically, and not to dethrone any of the Heads of the Political Families.

Start from this baseline – Unite at the Lowest Common Denominator and be amazed that unity at the highest levels becomes unclouded and reachable.

See the other as an enemy and you will get fucked!

See the other as a friend, success will be assured.

The Take Away

HELP ME, TO HELP YOU
WE ARE SITTING TOGETHER AS FRIENDS

I GUARANTEE, YOU WILL HAVE NO FAILuRES!

ZILCH!
