

The Heads Of The Global Political Mafia Families Must Meet. Unite To Control And Defang the Snake - The 'City' Political Mafia Family

By Matthias Chang – Future Fast-Forward

The Table of Power

At the Table of Power, the Heads of the Four Political Mafia Families are:

President Trump – the US's Political Mafia Family

President Putin – the Russia's Political Mafia Family

President Xi – the China's Political Mafia Family

Khamenei / Successor – the Iran's Political Mafia Family

They must meet as equals and reach a consensus that the Families must share the huge political cake, that no one family, can in any circumstances, have the entire cake. This is the reality!

There is no need for any Heads of the Political Mafia Families to project any power or strength to the other Heads, as by virtue of them being the HEAD OF THEIR RESPECTIVE Political Mafia Families, the position / status speaks for itself and the recognition assured.

Each Political Mafia Family has THEIR OWN SINGULAR problem. The deadly snakes are in their pockets and therefore, the present strategy is to STAY SO STRONG that there can be no challenges to their standing as Head of their respective families. Period!

But, their strengths have been drained / chipped away by the insidious infiltration of the 'Tentacles' of the most vile, most devious, most cunning of Political Mafia Families – THE "CITY" POLITICAL MAFIA FAMILY.

In the centuries of efforts since WWI, the "City" Political Mafia Family Heads have attempted to reclaim the recognition / standing as the SUPREME HEAD of all Political Mafia Families.

There is an insatiable hunger and anger that THE HEAD of the "City" Political Mafia Family is not seated at the Table of Power, not even as a Figure Head!

This is just not acceptable!

The Head Of The American Political Mafia Family

Time does not permit me to deliberate on the other Heads of Political Mafia Families, because if the Head of the American Political Mafia Family is decapitated, the Table of Power would be destroyed and such an eventuality serves no purpose for anyone.

Stupid! Get your act together!

President Trump need not project any power or strength when he has not defang the SNAKE in his pocket. Fucking stupid! Trump can never defang the snake alone and by his own efforts!

The deadliest snake – the Head of the “City” Political Mafia Family must liquidate President Trump first and the remaining family Heads will be easy meat to be eaten raw! There is only one “Deal”, “Trade” or “Transaction” that needs to be settled at the Table Meeting - unite, unite their respective strengths to liquidate the hidden Head of the “City” Political Mafia Family.

The American Political Mafia Family was misled by the “propaganda ploy” - the special relationship cultivated since 1776 - that without the presence of the Head of the “City” Political Mafia family, the American Political Mafia Family would be wiped out.

Is it not obvious that WWI, WWII, the Cold War, was fought with the huge sacrifices of the “soldiers and members” of the American Political Mafia Family without which, the “City” Political Mafia Family would have been buried in the memory hole of History.

The American Political Mafia Family and their past Heads forgot that it was the immigrant members, the downtrodden “deplorables” that escaped from the clutches of the “City” Political Mafia Family.

The immigrants came from Ireland, Scotland, Wales, the European continent, and later the rest of the world. The immigrants built the American nation. Genocidal wars against the native inhabitants were unleashed and inflicted by the then Head of the “City” Political Mafia Family.

The real estate of the then American continent was ruled and occupied with an iron fist by the chosen representatives and compradors (lackeys) of the “City” Political Mafia Family.

The American Political Mafia Family was the 13 Colonies that united to oppose the “City” Political Mafia Family but, the American Political Mafia Family never realised that the “City” Political Mafia Family left behind cunning political remnants as the “Trojan Horse” to continue the strangle hold of power over the so-called Independent United States of America.

How fucking stupid.

The Elephant in the Room

I can only focus on one special elephant in the room, the tried and tested template for Imperial control – the total seizure and control of the minds and hearts of the people via the British created Think Tanks.

Research and document how the Royal Institute of International Affairs (commonly referred to as “Chatham House”) sustained British Imperial Power for the centuries over the US.

I cannot but quote from the horse’s mouth. Read and learn BEYOND THE QUEEN’S FLOWERY ENGLISH LANGUAGE and understand the sinister agendas, the boasts, the victories buried in the sophistication of the English Language.

Source: <https://www.chathamhouse.org/about-us/our-history>

Chatham House’s founders pioneered the unique and disruptive concept of an organization dedicated to the study of international affairs. Their vision altered the course of international politics and helped create the international consensus that followed the world wars.

Our history is one of building understanding between nations and driving world-changing policies. We continue to set a high bar to champion positive solutions.

Ashes of war

1919 From the ashes of war

On the side-lines of the Paris Peace Conference, the British diplomat Lionel Curtis advocates the creation of an institute for the study of international affairs. His vision is to foster mutual understanding between nations and for the institute to propose solutions to the biggest challenges facing the world.

World leaders at the 1919 Paris Peace Conference.

1927 The Chatham House Rule

The Rule is formally adopted, encouraging a trusted environment designed to understand and resolve complex problems. The Rule states that:

When a meeting, or part thereof, is held under the Chatham House Rule, participants are free to use the information received, but neither the identity nor the affiliation of the speaker(s), nor that of any other participant, may be revealed.

1930s A blueprint for others

The concept for an organization for the study of international affairs rapidly catches on. Others look at how Chatham House is helping to shape the way governments organize foreign policy. Over time institute staff help found and influence institutes in Australia, Canada, East Africa, Japan, Nigeria, South Africa and elsewhere.

1930 Shaping the economic order

John Maynard Keynes considers the role of gold in the international monetary system in Chatham House study groups. His subsequent publications strongly influence the design of the Bretton Woods institutions and underpin the post-war economic recovery.

1939 Outbreak of war

A Committee on Reconstruction begins work on post-war welfare, medical relief in Europe, air transport and future international organisations.

[So sure of victory, even before the war ended – think. Matthias]

1940s Influence in conflict

Chatham House researchers generate unique insight throughout World War Two with the creation of the Foreign Research and Press Service, which provides a coherent picture of conditions in Axis-occupied countries. The Service influences British wartime intelligence and post-war planning. Many staff relocate to Balliol College, Oxford. Others are seconded to government departments. In St James's Square the institute continues to operate under acting director, Margaret Cleeve.

1951 The new Europe

Konrad Adenauer, Chancellor of West Germany, addresses a Chatham House audience. He states that peace had, again and again, been wrecked on the rocks of nationalism. The only way to preserve peace in Europe would be an international community transcending national frontiers.

1960s Africa's Advance

As countries in Africa start to gain independence, Chatham House is integral to the study of the complexities of transition. Hastings Banda, Kenneth Kaunda and Julius Nyerere are among the new leaders who engage with the institute, along with figures from nationalist movements like Bernard Chidzero, Eduardo Mondlane and Oliver Tambo.

1970s Charting Britain's Course in Europe

The 'Europe Since 1972' study group examines the implications of the enlargement of the European Economic Community (EEC), including Britain's accession in 1973. Business people and policy makers turn to the institute for expert briefings and deeper understanding of the EEC and Britain's place within it.

International political economy

In The Chatham House Version and Other Middle Eastern Studies, Elie Kedourie criticises what he perceives as the institute's pro-Arab stance and attacks Arnold Toynbee for denying the 'civilising role' played by the British Empire.

1974 Oil shock

The oil crisis triggers short and long term effects on the global economy and geopolitics. Saudi Arabia's Oil Minister, Sheik Ahmed Zaki Yamani, addresses a Chatham House audience, noting the complacency of major industrial consumers and calling for objective dialogue with producer countries.

Reaching through the iron curtain

During the 1970s, Chatham House begins Anglo-Soviet roundtable meetings, an early initiative in track-two diplomacy. The aim (controversial for some) is to develop structures for East-West cooperation by cultivating relations with Soviet reformers.

1980s Break-up of the Soviet Union

As the Soviet Union collapses, and the Cold War draws to an end, Margaret Thatcher, Ronald Reagan and Mikhail Gorbachev are among the leading political figures of the period to speak at events organized by Chatham House.

1990s In from the cold

In the aftermath of the fall of the Berlin Wall, the institute facilitates track-two diplomacy and direct engagement with governments of former Warsaw Pact countries.

2000s International terrorism

In the wake of 9/11, research is stepped up on the Middle East, Asia-Pacific, international security and international law.

2005 The Chatham House Prize

President Victor Yushchenko of Ukraine is the first recipient of the award, presented by Her Majesty, The Queen. This annual award recognises an individual or organization that has made a significant contribution to the improvement of international relations. Prize winners are voted for by the institute's members.

2010s The Asian century

China's economy and influence grow, along with global concerns about the impact of rapid industrialization and climate change.

The above extracts are just a sample, but hides the true nature of the agendas.

The Equivalent in the USA - (Council on Foreign Relations - CFR)

CFR publishes the bi-monthly journal Foreign Affairs since 1922. It also runs the David Rockefeller Studies Program, which makes recommendations to presidential administrations and the diplomatic community, testifies before Congress, interacts with the media, and publishes research on foreign policy issues.

And from Britannica, the encyclopedic mouth-piece of the British Empire:

The CFR includes government officials, activists, scholars, business leaders, journalists, and professionals from corporations and non-profit groups. Members of the council interact directly with high government officials, academic experts, and policy makers in CFR-sponsored panel discussions, workshops, symposia, town halls, and other fora. Membership in the council is available to U.S. citizens who have been nominated by a current member. Life members, whose nominations must be seconded by at least three other persons (preferably CFR members), are elected biannually by the CFR's board of directors, which seeks to include members of diverse backgrounds and political philosophies. Term members, whose nominations require at least two seconds, serve five-year membership terms and are chosen annually from among applicants 30 to 36 years old. Corporate members are included through the group's corporate membership program. The CFR also includes the David Rockefeller Studies Program, a think tank made up of adjunct and full-time fellows and scholars as well as resident fellows who contribute to the foreign-affairs discussion through various publications. The CFR is funded by private and institutional donations.

Research on who were the past and present Presidents, Secretaries of State, National Security Advisers, Secretaries for Defence, Heads of the Intelligence Apparatus etc. of USA, who were and are former / current members of US Think Tanks!

I have deliberately omitted quoting from my Intel Sources.

This much I can guarantee. Chatham House, CFR, Trilateral Commission, the Skull & Bones, the Bilderbergers etc. are the breeding grounds and the selection processes for political appointments.

Then there are those behind the curtains that control the breeding grounds and selection processes.
