

Ukraine Ceasefire Would Not Be Promoted, If US, NATO And Europe Were Winning In The Proxy War!

By Matthias Chang – Future Fast-Forward

There have never been any denials by all the Western Mafia political figures that the Ukraine war was a proxy war between US, NATO and Europe on one the side and Russia on the other side. Period!

Yet, Malaysians are so freaking stupid and blur to this fact, and that the ceasefire has been touted by the Trump administration for one objective only – “Stop the Killings” because AMERICANS, NATO FORCES and EUROPEAN MERCENARIES are surrounded and about to be slaughtered by the Russians! The Russians did not agree to the cessation of any hostilities for the entire frontlines in Ukraine in the 2nd telephone exchange between Putin and Trump.

Only a token gesture, that there will be no attacks on the energy and infrastructures of Ukraine and Russia to avoid a global massive hike in oil prices, which will wreck the US economy.

All Malaysian analysts and Think Tanks should stop speculating and offering idiotic opinions when writing and talking B.S.!

Utter Defeat of the Zionist Anglo-American Empire

Malaysian idiots who have never carried a rifle in the entire lives and or have no military experience should shut the fuck up and not comment on military matters.

There are no circumstances when a victorious military ask or demand a ceasefire unless the vanquished military force surrenders and concedes defeat.

Historical defeats illustrate:-

- The US left Vietnam and entered into a Peace Treaty when they lost the Vietnam War; The victorious North Vietnamese and South Vietnamese patriots united the “two” artificial Vietnams (North and South) as a single and undivided country;
- The US military forces abandoned their equipment and military bases in Afghanistan after decades of war and US$ Trillions were expended when it realised that the Talibans could not be defeated. The humiliating defeat of the British Empire in 1842, and again in 1919 after the Third Anglo-Afghan War, resulting in Afghanistan regaining its independence, refers;

- The Japanese military surrendered to the US and signed the Instrument of surrender on board of USS Missouri in Tokyo Bay on September 2, 1945; and
- WWII ended on 9 May 1945 (see the last paragraph below in Red *****), when Germany's armed forces surrendered unconditionally following the Battle of Berlin (also known as the Berlin Offensive), a strategic operation executed by the Red Army.

A history which Malaysians do not know at all even till today! There were two surrenders by the Germans. I recap as follows (source: Military.com):

The first surrender came in the early morning hours of May 7, 1945, at Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters in Reims, France. By then, German Adm. Karl Dönitz had succeeded Hitler as head of state, and he sent Gen. Alfred Jodl to sign the surrender. Along with Jodl, Germany was represented by Maj. Wilhelm Oxenius and Gen. Adm. Hans-Georg von Friedeburg. Lt. Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, Eisenhower's chief of staff at Supreme Headquarters, Allied Expeditionary Force (SHAEF). That might have been the end of the war -- except it wasn't. Fighting between German and Soviet forces in Czechoslovakia and elsewhere continued for at least another full day. Moreover, the Act of Military Surrender ensured the submission of Germany's armed forces, but not its government. Dönitz was determined to continue the German government, unrepentant of Nazism, with the presidential powers Hitler left to him in accordance with the Weimar Constitution. Eisenhower wanted to ensure the German government surrendered while the Soviet Union was concerned the continued fighting on the Eastern Front made it look like the West had brokered a separate peace.

In reality, German troops had signed separate agreements piecemeal since the end of April. In Italy, German and Fascist Italian forces signed their surrender on April 29. Field Marshal Bernard Montgomery accepted the surrender of German forces in the Netherlands and northern Germany on May 4. The next day, fighting stopped in southern Germany when the Nazis surrendered to the Americans. The Soviets, it turns out, had every reason to suspect the Germans were up to something. German forces in the east were fighting their way west in order to avoid surrendering to the Red Army while requesting permission to continue fighting. Writing in "The End: The Defiance and Destruction of Hitler's Germany," renowned historian Ian Kershaw observed that both Dönitz and Field Marshal Wilhelm Keitel wanted to use what remained of the Wehrmacht.

It took just six hours for the USSR to object to the Reims surrender. Moscow complained that the text of that instrument was different from what the Allies had previously agreed upon and that Susloparov didn't have the authority to sign for the Soviet Union. Soviet leader Joseph Stalin, Kershaw wrote, wanted a tacit acknowledgment that the Red Army had borne the brunt of the fighting and dying by signing a surrender document in the German capital with the highest representatives of the German military command present. Eisenhower agreed.

It was under these circumstances that Keitel, then the overall commander of the German Army; Col. Gen. Hans-Jürgen Stumpff, commander of the Luftwaffe; and Adm. Friedeburg, commander of the German Navy, entered the former mess hall of Germany's military engineering school in Karlshorst on May 8, 1945. At the time, the building was the headquarters for Soviet Marshal Georgy Zhukov. The lasting legacy of these two surrender documents can be seen in the former allies' commemoration of their victory in Europe. The Reims surrender was signed on May 7, 1945, but the news broke back home the next day, leading the Western Allies to celebrate V-E Day on May 8.

***** Since the Soviet Union didn't recognize the Reims agreement and the Nazi surrender in Berlin was signed on May 9 - that's the day Russia celebrates its Victory Day.

The Russians Learn From History

I want each and every Malaysian to be humble and learn from history as the Russians have learned by reading the above paragraph prefaced by ***** !

It is the 9th May, 1945 that WWII ended. The then Soviet Union lost over 27 million men, women and children in defeating the Nazis in the Great Patriotic War at the Front Lines more commonly referred as the EASTEN FRONT.

The freaking WWII was not won at the Normandy Beach! This was the shameful lie that was taught in our schools and the screwed up text books promoted by the British Empire. A damn lie!

Why President Trump Wanted a Ceasefire

Do Malaysians really think that the USA (even under President Trump) would demand a ceasefire, if and when the US, NATO and Europe were winning the proxy war in Ukraine?

It has now been exposed that some 30 NATO commanding officers, American mercenaries etc. were encircled in the cauldron, surrounded by Russian armed forces. It was a desperate initiative to save American lives. Simple as that, but couched in terms of "Stop the Killings"! Only the fucked up and blurred Malaysian analysts and Think Tanks cannot see beyond their noses!

International Law, as well as the Conventions on War does not apply to terrorists and mercenaries. Period!

Yes, I readily want the war to end, but not on the terms imposed by the defeated military of the US, NATO and Europe and their puppets in Ukraine. It must be with the agreement and consent of the victorious Russian military and approved by President Putin. Not otherwise!
