

Warriors For Truths Are From All Backgrounds. We Are Fighting In The Same Trenches

By Matthias Chang – Future Fast-Forward

Rummaging my old research papers, instinctively looking for the wisdom of Robert David Steele, a close friend of Cynthia McKinney my favourite female colleague especially in political matters (a former Congresswoman), I found the book, “Open Your Mind to Change – A Guidebook to the great Awakening” by Martin Geddes.

Before introducing the late Robert Steele, I urge all of you to read the title of my article – “Warriors for Truth FROM ALL BACKGROUNDS...” The bulk of my learning and experience is from people with long and deep intelligence backgrounds.

The Late Robert D. Steele

Robert is a former spy and a professional intelligence officer who created the then newest national intelligence analysis capability in the USA – The Marine Corp Intelligence Activity.

He is also a close friend of retired general Mike Flynn. Robert’s mentor in CWO-4 from his assignment in Afghanistan suggested that Mike Flynn and Q “was the single greatest INFORMATION operation for peace and in the public interest in modern history.” I must do justice to the late Robert Steele by quoting him in extenso,

Then I met Sidney Powell and two others with direct contact with the White House and I began to see the end game for what Martin calls ‘the Silent War’ that has been won by the White Hats against the Deep State. The demise of what Martin calls ‘pathocracy’ is here, and I am seeing nothing less than Nuremberg like trials forthcoming: not just military tribunals in the USA against US traitors, but also international trials for the combined crime against humanity known as COVID weapon of mass destruction, weapon of mass disruption, and weapon of mass deception. The global economy has been wrecked, and society gutted by design...

The idiots will just read and read, and not registering the wisdom. So, for God’s sake, read the entire quotation five times and then read again and again the underlined words! Wake up, and pay attention. When you listen to useless and clueless political leaders, you will be fucked big time!

Who Is Martin Geddes?

Martin is a British computer scientist based in London and has also lived and worked in the USA. Following a career as a “telecoms industry guru” he became a ‘Whistle- blower' on corruption in tech and media. As a result, he became a leading authority on the Q phenomenon and an outcast in his industry.

Two Quotations / Mantras

The truth at any costs lowers all other costs.

Robert David Steele

If peace is the prize, truth is the winning ticket.

Spring Cleaning

Where do we start?

Martin said that he woke up sometime between 2011 and 2015 when he realised that there was no possible way that the "official story" of the events of September 11, 2001 can be true. Martin said that the narrative being offered requires the laws of physics to change and political absurdities to be taken as fact. Martin taught that a successful society requires some level of shared reality and that "you are going to have to scope your own research, stride along your own path, and synthesize your own understanding of the world."

In essence, I am not asking you to believe in what I AM SHARING, as you have to assemble the facts to arrive at your own understanding.

You may experience the same mental puzzlement as Martin, so I will quote him so that you may arrive at a positive mind-set.

Over the past few years, I have spent many a night puzzling over how the world works. This is partly motivated to heal a trauma of my own ... What gave rise to that malignant movement? As Jung counseled us, "knowing your own darkness is the best method for dealing with the darkness of other people." This leads me to discover PONEROLOGY. No, I hadn't heard of it, either. It is the academic study of evil. Maybe we all ought to have heard of it!

This in turn has uncovered the apparently figural role of psychopaths in society and how they are widely (and possibly intentionally) misunderstood. Those without a conscience are believed to make up 1- 4% of the population, and they have an outsized influence on our institutions and culture.

We see this pattern in play every day in the media. For instance, no matter what you think of Hillary Clinton, many images of her in the media legitimise her as a public figure A large photograph of the former first lady bedecked in bright red, gold and black graduate regalia, robes of distinction conferred upon honorary dignitaries.... So, the arrival of the media business gave psychopaths leverage over the rest of us. This coincided with the growth of urban society hierarchical organisations and licenced professions conferring authority. These are irresistible targets for psychopaths, since they amplify their control over others. The result has been the rise of “pathocracy,” which is the societal adoption of psychopaths’ institutionalised beliefs.

The process begins with the infection of trusted institutions by a few (who control recruitment) followed by the inversion of their moral value system. Such subversion occurs in all walks of life, but especially in circumstances wherein psychopaths can hold positions of great power over others. The obvious cases include politicians, military leaders and CEOs but it also manifests in other professions, like surgeons and ministers of religion. My sense is we are now at a place of “peak pathocracy.”

In essence, we must on a daily basis, fight against evil, and not be victims of the global mass media brainwashing us!
