

Whisper's Special Meditative Insight For Me To Unite My Country

This meditative insight was given to me weeks ago but I was so stunned and confused that I thought it was not meant for me. The insight captured my heart and my soul, and I was restless and doubted that there was a need to share with all of you.

I prayed to be enlightened and finally, I found the wisdom and courage to share with you. Help me to help our fractured country

Dear Patriots,

THE FINAL COUNTDOWN.....

What I am conveying will be shocking and unprecedented and I tore my heart and soul out in total agony, to verify the message and vision I had received.

Why now? Why this message?

I had never ever questioned the messages I received from Whisper. Never! But I was pushed to the limits of my faith and meditated and meditated for such a long time ... I had so many doubts.

I was reprimanded for not sharing the message. It was my cowardice!

I asked, "Who is it? What must I do?"

Whisper replied,

"Years ago, she sat next to you in a small public forum (organised by some lawyers), surrounded by empty seats on the left side of the small hall. But, the two of you were alone in the otherwise crowded hall. No words were spoken. The silence was the language. No one appreciated the significance of this moment."

"She was fragile but within the fragility was a quiet strength and determination. You saw pain in her eyes and you broke to pieces within your soul and you carried the burden for years."

"The time had come to unburden this huge weight on your shoulders. You have been called upon to do your duty and many will curse and condemn you and your efforts. Disregard these pin pricks. You have a higher duty."

I asked in desperation,

"What is the higher duty and why now?"

Whisper replied,

"Matthias, there will be a new era and this 'Lady of Light' will usher in a new era of enlightenment. But she will be maligned and enemies will come out of the woodwork. Your onerous duty is to defend her against all advice and pleas, to turn your back and to ignore her. This is your test of faith in HIM."

"Prepare for this momentous moment. You will be guided but there is a proviso. This person must seek your help and with humility she will make a promise to you.... She will never let HIM down or betray HIM. On that promise, she will be the next leader to lead your people and country. Your people will be united as never before, as this would be her most precious gift to your people. She will lay the foundation for her successor, another faithful lady."

"Just wait. Do nothing. If this lady misses this opportunity provided by HIM, there is nothing you can do about it. Your time is not HIS time and once HIS TIME is wasted and unappreciated, you must move on and keep your Faith in HIM."

I was in a state of shock for so long and kept this message for weeks. I know I must deliver this message. I am doing so now. I must have Faith.

This is the Final Countdown
