

Whisper's 59th Meditative Insight To The World

Shared by Matthias Chang

There was a storm of questions that swept through my mind, distracting my concentration of my journey and my focus. I was not my usual calm and collected self.

Whisper reminded me that we must ask the right question.

“Matthias, do our BELIEVE in yourself?”

“Matthias, do you SEE your true self?”

“Matthias, do you have FAITH in your path?”

“Matthias, how is it that we do not internalise our strength and faith when HE:

- 1) Believes in us;
- 2) Sees us;
- 3) Have Faith in us;

“Change starts from within and we must not expect change in others, when we have not fundamentally changed our outlook as to why we are in our present circumstances. What have been troubling you is the evil of paedophilia. Yet, this is the evil that corrodes the essence of any faith-based society – the innocence of the children.”

“When societies condone and tolerate the abuse, rape and mass killing of children it is the beginning of the end of that society. Meditate on this revelation, for when we lose the ‘innocence of a child’ we can never be on the right path.”

“Don’t talk down to children. Listen to them and see how they perceive the world and what surrounds them. Spend time with them as that is the surest path to reclaim ‘the innocence’ corrupted by adults who are pre-occupied with things and issues that destroy innocence.”

I look once again the paintings and drawings by my two granddaughters which I displayed in my office. I was astounded by their perceptions as reflected in their paintings and drawings. I counted my blessings and gave thanks to HIM.
